

Thank You

Michael Patrick Kelly

I struggle to find, I struggle to find
Some clever words to say
You keep blowing my mind, keep blowing my mind
Now I'm no longer the same
And you are to blame

I could sing you a song, I could sing you a song
Could write a poem for you
I'd fly to the moon, even fly to the sun
Rewrite all history for you
But nothing would do

As the years keep passing by
Every day I realise
Through all the lows and highs
You're the best thing in my life
It's hard for me to show
But I've got to let you know

For all that you are and all that you do
For all of the love that carried me through
I know it's simple but true
I thank you
For all of your time, for each sacrifice
And all of the miles you stayed by my side
I know it's simple but true
I thank you

There's nothing I need, no, nothing I need
When I am here with you
You made me believe, you made me believe
In all the love songs I knew
And now I know they're all true

And the years keep passing by
Every day I realise
Through all the lows and highs
You're the best thing in my life
It's hard for me to show
But I've got to let you know

For all that you are and all that you do
For all of the love that carried me through
I know it's simple but true
I thank you
For all of your time, for each sacrifice
And all of the miles you stayed by my side
I know it's simple but true
I thank you

It's simple but true
It's simple but true
Thank you
Thank you

There's nothing I need, no, nothing I need
When I am here with you
