

Don't Die On Me Now

The Michael Schenker Group

All chips are down these darker days
When clowns and fools just pass your way
Rolling high just to win a game
The enemy, well can't you see, ain't got no name

Face the fate, here comes the shade
Brings on darkness from inside
Almost there, everywhere, unforeseen from behind

Remedies are hard to find
Doctors orders we follow blind
Streets are empty filled with silent cries
Take this take this, take this long goodbye

Face the fate, here comes the shade
Brings on darkness from inside
Almost there, everywhere, unforeseen from behind
Fade the fade, it's way too late, walk the gate of time

Die on me, die on, don't you die on me now
Cry, don't you cry on, as you promised by a vow
And the choir of the angels welcomes the morning sun
Don't you die, die on me now, until this battle's won

Tongues might be twisted
Have faith along the gifted
When memories blinding the truth from inside
Essence of fire from lips of a liar
Shaking and blurring what's wrong or what's right

Die on me, die on, don't you die on me now
Cry, don't you cry on, as you promised by a vow
And the choir of the angels welcomes the morning sun
Don't you die, die on me now, until this battle's won

All words have been spoken
We stay unbroken

Die on me, die on, don't you die on me now
Cry, don't you cry on, as you promised by a vow
And the choir of the angels welcomes the morning sun
Don't you die, die on me now, until this battle's won
