

Don't Go

Michael Schulte

I know
it's time to feel my heart as you turn your head slow and you say
we tried but it's okay
and still i want you to stay do you know where to go to?

is this what you want?
i see your tears as you say no but i can't stand it anymore

when you'll take yours and i'll take mine will you let go? we can't deny
it's over, but don't go!
and i fall out, the doors closed
when you run fast, you hear no more
it's over, but don't go!
it's over, but don't go!

i've waited
i hope there's more to come when the days just went by life's nothing
without you anymore
so i start to break down

do you know how this hurt me?
do you feel the pain?
do you feel what will be so hard?
now i can't stand it anymore

when you'll take yours and i'll take mine
will you let go? we can't deny
it's over, but don't go!
and i fall out, the doors closed
when you run fast, you hear no more
it's over, but don't go!
it's over, but don't go!

when you'll take yours and i'll take mine
will you let go? we can't deny
it's over, but don't go!
so run to the place where we first met i look at you as i turn my head it's not over, cause we're here!

when you'll take yours and i'll take mine will you let go? we're just in time it's not over, so don't go!
and i'll take yours and you'll take mine we're just in time, we made it right
it's not over, cause we're here!
it's not over, cause we're here!
it's not over, cause we're here!
