

HEY

Michael Schulte

I wanna get back to the days
When you were a phone-call away
The only worry was the sun going down
Remember us running inside
And you were so happy and I
I watched you smile with your head in the clouds

'Cause I'm a hopeless wanderer
Since you've been gone but I know
You're gonna make it some day
'Cause you're a soul-searching ponderer
Since that winter I've been told, oh, you're gonna be okay

Singing, "Hey, how you doing?"
You've been moving just a little fast
Maybe I could take you back to someone that you used be
"Hey, how you doing?"
You been losing so much sleep these past
Days have made you crazy but I know you're gonna be okay (Hey!)
I know you're gonna be okay (Hey!)

Ich zog vor ein paar Jahren aus der Stadt
Hab dich seitdem nicht mehr gesehen
Yeah, Den Schritt nach draußen hast du nie geschafft
Lass mal treffen ich hab viel zu erzählen

Hey!
Aber was machst du?
Gehts dir wirklich gut?
Wenn du Träume hast dann auf was warten wir?
Ich war genau wie du
Ich hatte riesen Angst
Doch nimm meine Hand

Singing, "Hey, how you doing?"
You've been moving just a little fast
Maybe I could take you back to someone that you used be
"Hey, how you doing?"
You been losing so much sleep these past
Days have made you crazy but I know you're gonna be okay (Hey!)
I know you're gonna be okay (Hey!)
(I know you're gonna be okay)

Singing, "Hey, how you doing?"
You've been moving just a little fast
Maybe I could take you back to someone that you used be
"Hey, how you doing?"
You been losing so much sleep these past
Days have made you crazy but I know you're gonna be okay

Singing, "Hey, how you doing?"
You've been moving just a little fast
Maybe I could take you back to someone that you used be
"Hey, how you doing?"
You been losing so much sleep these past
Days have made you crazy but I know you're gonna be okay
I know you're gonna be okay
I know you're gonna be okay
