

Remember Me

Michael Schulte

I've been thinkin' about
When I'm no longer around
Will you remember me?
'Cause it was seventeen years ago
That my father left this world
And memories start to fade

I hope you'll say when I go
That we made this our home
You were part of a family

Oh, when I'm gone, will you still remember me?
'Cause you live on, that's how it was meant to be
There's so much life to live before I leave
Oh, but when I'm gone, will you still remember me?

I know time goes so fast
So, when it's over and you're lookin' back
You smile when you remember me

Until the breath leaves my lungs
I wanna help you become
All that you are meant to be

Oh, when I'm gone, will you still remember me?
'Cause you live on, that's how it was meant to be
There's so much life to live before I leave
Oh, but when I'm gone, will you still remember me?

Will you remember, remember me?
Will you remember, remember me?
Will you remember, remember me?
Will you remember, remember me?

Oh, when I'm gone, will you still remember me?
'Cause you live on, that's how it was meant to be
There's so much life to live before I leave
Oh, but when I'm gone, will you still remember me? (Ohh)

Will you remember, remember me?
Will you remember, remember me?
Will you remember, remember me? (Oh)
Will you remember, remember me?
