

Black Rain

Michael Sembello

Like a horseman I ride
A lone alley and
I feel like a bullet
That somebody put in
A desperate time
I see blue heat
The wind in my face
On my own at ground zero
Where angels and heroes
Lay fallen from grace
Thunder and ash
In an ebony sky
Telling me it's too late to try

But I've got miles to go
Before the night wind calls
Miles to roam
Before the black rain falls

Twilight so pale
Drawn to the flame
Behind veils of scarlet
It burns like a harlot
And whispers your name
There comes a time
For the reaper to sign
Telling you to lay down and die

But I've got miles to go
Before the night wind calls
Miles to roam
Before the black rain falls

We leave history's story
In each place of glory
And nothing but shadows remain
And all our tomorrows
Will let go of sorrows
As tears of our ghosts fall like rain
Black, black rain

I've got miles to go
Before the night wind calls
Miles to roam
Before the black rain falls

I've got miles to go
Before the night wind calls
I've got miles to roam
Before the black rain falls

I've got miles and miles and miles and miles and miles to go
I've got miles
I've got miles and miles and miles and miles and miles to go
I've got miles and miles and miles and miles and miles...
