

Mission Responsible

Michael Tolcher

Be a part of an institution
Lead the way in a revolution
Wear a wig and a permanent smile
Be a part of a celebration
Make the plan or the cancellation
Quick decisions, let's change our minds

There's people out there
This people we are
Just faces and different places
Drinking juice from mason jars

I'm on mission responsible
Say your goodbye

Be a father of no relation
Be a symbol for procreation
Strike a match and there's sure to be fire
Feel that?
Be a part of your situation
Blame yourself for your frustration
Dig a whole 'til you lose your desire

There's people out there
This people we are
Just names playin' different games
Drinking coke and eatin' candy bars

I'm on mission responsible
Say your goodbye

I'm finding anything's possible
Closing your eyes
Closing your eyes
Closing your eyes

Be a part of your own decision
See your future with tunnel vision
Take a chance if you want to survive
You want to survive don't ya?
Be the talk of a conversation
You're a superstar out of isolation
Get the keys, it's your turn to drive

There's people out there
This people we are
Just voices with different choices
Smokin' dope or rockin' out guitars

I want a mission responsible
Say your goodbyes

I'm finding anything's possible
Closing your eyes

Take a look all around you
Say that you want to

See somethin' better than this
Take a look all around you
Say that you want to
See somethin' better than this

I'm on a mission responsible
Say your goodbyes
See something better than this
I'm finding anything's possible
Closing your eyes
Yeahâ?!

â??Cause I'm on a mission responsible
I'm on a mission responsible
Say your goodbyesâ?!
