

Through Multi Colored Glasses

Michael Tolcher

If i told you
That you can see the world any way you wanted to
If i told you
That every single thing is beautiful
If i told you
That happily ever after is somewhere inside of you

Would you just believe

Your going to see the world
Through multi colored glasses

Your going to see the world
Through dandelion frames

Just a little girl
Born to be an angel

Tried to make you change well
You don't have to change

You'll fly anyway
(you'll fly anyway)

Take a look around you
The sun's going to bring you everything you need
Take a look around you
This is a place where fantasies
And moralist dreams come true

If you just believe
You just believe

Your going to see the world
Through multi colored glasses

Your going to see the world
Through dandelion frames

Just a little girl
Born to be an angel

Tried to make you change well
You don't have to change

World will make you change girl
But you don't have to change
You don't have to change

Want to make you think
That everything is so difficult (but it aint)
Going to tell you that
Your happiness is just mythical (but it aint)
Going to tell you that
You need to be somebody that you never wanted to be

Then they try to make you pay for things
That you can have for free

If you see the world
Through multi colored glasses

Your going to see the world

Just a little girl
Daddy's little angel

Tried to make you change well
You don't have to change

World will make you change girl
But you don't have to change
You don't have to change
You don't have to change
You'll fly anyway
