

Did You Ever Cry

Michał Bajor

It seems so easy again, now I know
I've won you back again
I seem so happy again, now you know
That I was going insane

Did you ever cry?

We've wasted all this time on foolish suffering
We've wasted all this time, we've wasted all this time, for nothing

Did you ever cry?
I know I made you sad
I know that I was bad, girl, to you

Did you ever cry?
Girl, I'm so sorry for all the things that I did to you back then
I'm so sorry for the lies and for for all the lonely nights
I'm really sorry,
I'm coming back to you, that's all I wanna do
And I want the things, all the things
You wanted too
