

Heaven In Your Eyes

Michał Bajor

I've seen the future
And what it holds
And all the secrets
That time unfolds

I curse the day
When you will break my heart
When cruel fate sets us far apart

Don't blame yourself
It's meant to be
Not even love will conquer destiny

But please believe me
I'll tell you no lies
That I see heaven in your eyes

For all this time
I've felt the pain of waiting
Through all the pain
I've seen heaven in your eyes

For all this time
I've felt the pain of losing
Through all the pain
I've seen heaven in your eyes

For all this time
I've felt the pain of silence
Through all the pain
I've seen heaven in your eyes

For all this time
I've felt the pain of love
And of trying to believe

I've heard the voices
Inside my head
As I lie lonely
In my moonlit bed

They speak of you
As if you're really here
Here by my side
Everywhere

You've gone away
Just for a while
Can't hide the tears
Behind the broken smile

So believe me
I'll tell you no lies
I've only see heaven
In your eyes

For all this time

I've felt the pain of waiting
Through all the pain
I've seen heaven in your eyes

For all this time
I've felt the pain of losing
Through all the pain
I've seen heaven in your eyes

For all this time
I've felt the pain of silence
Through all the pain
I've seen heaven in your eyes

For all this time
I've felt the pain of love

For all this time
I've felt the pain of waiting
Through all the pain
I've seen heaven in your eyes

For all this time
I've felt the pain of losing
Through all the pain
I've seen heaven in your eyes

For all this time
I've felt the pain of silence
Through all the pain
I've seen heaven in your eyes

For all this time
I've felt the pain of love
Through all the pain
I've seen heaven in your eyes

Through all the pain
I've seen heaven in your eyes
Through all the pain
I've seen heaven in your eyes
Through all the pain
I've seen heaven in your eyes
