

No One Cares

Michele Morrone

Walking in the world running so wrong
No one cares about your thoughts
All I want
Is your tears to dry, uh

I promise you, you'll be just fine
I'll take you out, this dark, cold night
All I want
To take a breath and look into your eyes

If you're down and don't feel like fighting
If you're stumblin' don't feel alone
Just hold my hand so tightly
And I will be there
'Cause you'll never be on your own

I know how hard can be this faith
I will throw out all my mistakes
To move on
I don't wanna put on the brakes

Mm, walking in this world, fighting so long
How hard can it be to pray for this love?
All I want
Is your tears to dry

If you're down and don't feel like fighting
If you're stumblin' don't feel alone
Just hold my hand so tightly
And I will be there
'Cause you'll never be on your own, yeah
