

Another Sun

Michelle Branch

A sunny sky becoming
The haunted in the skies
A place in time and wonder
Innocent and wild

A cage in bliss to save the rest
From us
I am lying among the trees
It must begin with me

Run with me to yesterday
The world we lost is ours to save
From tyranny and hope and fear
We so to [?] so keep

I left to you and yours
The time is close, the mountains' gone
For everyone and all of us
We live to raise another sun
Another sun
Another sun
