

Happen To Call

Michelle Branch

Oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh

And so your girl is gone
Or is it just a rumor
She knew it must be wrong
'Cause she'd been crying, crying
Far too long

I know the way she feels
Although I never knew her
While you're out having fun
Somebody's crying, crying
All alone

I spent so many nights at home
Feeling foolish
And I don't miss them at all
But if you happen to call

And tell me it wasn't my fault
How all of this time you were wrong
Would I even pick up the phone
If you happen to call

Oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh

And when my heart first broke
We were both in school then
And that was years ago
And you've been lying, lying
For so long

And I've been lying too
To make myself feel better
And that I still need you
I'm done with crying, crying
For someone

I've been through half my life
With you in the rearview
You still don't know me at all
But if you happen to call

And tell me it wasn't my fault
How all of this time you were wrong
Would I even pick up the phone
If you happen to call

But if you happen to call me
Any time you want me
Doesn't mean you got me
I won't crawl

I'm so tired of hoping
Doors were gonna open

Things would all be different
If you happen to call
If you happen to call

Oh, oh, oh
Happen to call me
If you happen to call me

Oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh
Happen to call
If you happen to call
