

Final Swim

Michelle Chamuel

Have you ever bled rock 'n roll while the sharks circled 'round below?

Have you felt their teeth ink your skin, wondering why you deci ded to swim?

Seemed like a good deal at the time
Feet in the sand no clouds in sight
Hands did the shaking, but eyes did lie
Didn't know how high that tide would climb

Now it's coming down to the end
Take a breath for that final swim
Have you ever signed your life away to give life to the music y ou make?

Seemed like a good deal at the time
Feet in the sand no clouds in sight
Didn't know how high that tide would climb

Seemed like a good deal at the time
Feet in the sand no clouds in sight
Didn't know how high that price would climb
