

I don't wanna break your heart
So I don't think that I'll hold it
And I'm sure that I'll regret it
Next time I am alone

Driving on the highway
Through the town that you live in
Past the federal prison
And the house that you own

Well, I'm so sorry
That I wasted your time
Well, I'm so sorry
That I wasted your time

Moving out and moving on
While my brothers are getting married
They'll be starting their families
While I'm out on the road

Mom and dad keep getting older
I can't ignore it
Can't give them the shoulder
'Cause they love me so much
And I love them more than they know

Well, I'm so sorry
That I wasted my time
Well, I'm so sorry
That I wasted my time

'Cause the world's on fire
And I'm next in line
Well, I'm so sorry
That I wasted my time

Just wanna go home
