

Episode

Michigander

Well, her mind was a rat race
With my heart in the wheel
So we sang "Happy Birthday"
Played it in a minor key
Magic show, rabbit in a hat
Too far in to make a comeback
Same old song that I can't play

Well, I don't wanna stick around for tonight's episode
Yeah
I'm pulling up to the house but I'm ready to go
Yeah
Nobody here is really interesting
It's getting old, but maybe it's just me, oh
I think I know
How this is gonna go

There's a method to your madness
Can you share the recipe?
Little want and can't have it
Kinda truck stop limousine
I'm losing sleep, I'm running out of gas
I'll leave the key under the doormat
But I won't let you have the last laugh
Oh

I don't wanna stick around for tonight's episode
Yeah
I'm pulling up to the house but I'm ready to go
Yeah
Nobody here is really interesting
It's getting old but maybe it's just me, oh
I think I know
How this is gonna go

I thought I was easy going but I'm not sure what it is I wanted
So I stand still and keep my fingers crossed, oh
I thought I was easy going but I'm not sure what it is I wanted
So I stand still and keep my fingers crossed

Well, I don't wanna stick around for tonight's episode
I'm pulling up to the house, are you ready to go?
Yeah
Nobody here is really interesting
It's getting older, baby, it's just me alone
I think I know
I think I know
I think I know
How this is gonna go
