Falling

Michigander

I don't need your love
I just want your sympathy
So would you please sit next to me
And say it's gonna be all right?

'Cause I don't wanna leave
This tiny town I hate so much
'Cause there's the only roads I trust
After midnight

It feels like I'm falling
And I don't know where I'll land
It feels like I'm falling
Would you please just take my hand?

The wind is at my back
My feet, they're stuck in cement
I try to live without regrets
But I always have to ask

So, Jesus, take me home
'Cause I'm afraid of messing up
'Cause everything that I've got
Is from you

'Cause it feels like I'm falling
And I don't know where I'll land
It feels like I'm falling
Would you please just take my hand?

It feels like I'm falling, oh
And I don't know where I'll land
It feels like I'm falling
Would you help me to understand?

Oh, oh
Oh
Oh, oh
Oh

I've been waiting' round this town for too long
Wasting all my time
And my energy
If I don't leave by winter, I'll get snowed in
I gotta pack my bags so I can leave

I've been waiting' round this town for too long
Wasting all my time
And my energy
If I don't leave by winter, I'll get snowed in
I gotta pack my bags so I can leave

I've been waiting' round this town for too long
Wasting all my time
And my energy
If I don't leave by winter, I'll get snowed in
I gotta pack my bags so I can leave

Oh, I gotta pack my bags so I can leave
I gotta pack my bags so I can leave
