

Giving Up

Michigander

Drove to California
Just so you would know that
I could never let you go
Fell into a valley
Cutting through an alley
Trying to find our way back home
Well I want you to get better, I want to stay together
I wanna build a house on the moon
If life is what we make it
Then why's it always breaking
I guess we left the party too soon

So I'm giving up, trying to make you happy 'cause I
Gave you enough, and now I'm feeling empty inside
You're wearing me out yeah you're wearing me thin
You broke me down and now I'm caving in
So I'm giving up, trying to make you happy

We could go to Colorado
And be there tomorrow
If we hit the road by 3
Just fake it till you make it
Burning through the paychecks
All on melatonin and weed
So I started searching my mind
Scared of what I might find
I don't wanna know the truth
So we're dancing on the skyline
Fire in the night sky
Morning couldn't come too soon

So I'm giving up, trying to make you happy 'cause I
Gave you enough, and now I'm feeling empty inside
You're wearing me out yeah you're wearing me thin
You broke me down and now I'm caving in
So I'm giving up, trying to make you happy

I'm giving up, trying to make you happy 'cause I
Gave you enough, and now I'm feeling empty inside
You're wearing me out yeah you're wearing me thin
You broke me down and now I'm caving in
So I'm giving up, trying to make you happy, I
I'm giving up, trying to make you happy and I
I'm giving up
