

Headlights

Michigander

Would you meet me in the middle?
If I gave you all my time?
We could try to make it simple
But we'd probably lose our minds

Well, I'm staring outside the door
And I'm looking down on the street
Waiting for your headlights
To stare back at me

And I can't get over you
And I, I don't think that I want to

Well things don't seem half as bad
When I'm standing in your shoes
I wish that you would want me back
Oh, there's nothing left to lose

Well, I starve myself from distances
And I passed out on your lawn
Well, I don't think you're innocent
No, but I don't think you're wrong

And I can't get over you
And I, I don't think I want to
And I can't get over you
And I, I don't think I want to

You're staying out
'Til 5 AM
Saying God knows what

Don't shut me out
Don't lock the door
Why'd you walk away?
When I gave you all?
I gave you all
I gave it all

And I can't get over you
And I, I don't think I want to
And I can't get over you
And I, I don't think I want to
