

I'll Be OK

Michigander

I feel the love but not from the ones who love me
I'm not alone, so why am I so lonely?
I'm too stressed to be depressed
I must confess I ain't so blessed
It eats me up but still, I've got a heart that's hungry

I'll be okay, but I'm not okay right now
I'll be okay, but I'm not okay right now
I'm knocked down and I'm still out
So if you see me on the ground, it's okay
But I'm not okay right now
No, I'm not okay right now

Heart attack inside my head and I'm losing
Smile back, it's an act, who am I fooling?
Saw Sylvan Esso at the ramen shop
Not much in common, but I'll shoot my shot
Pump me up 'cause it feels so low
11:05 so I'm ready, set, go

I'll be okay, but I'm not okay right now
I'll be okay, but I'm not okay right now
I'm knocked down and I'm still out
So if you see me on the ground, it's okay
But I'm not okay right now
No, I'm not okay right now

Freak out until I lose my mind
Give up before you even try

I'll be okay, but I'm not okay right now
I'll be okay, but I'm not okay right now
Knocked down and I'm still out
So if you see me on the ground, it's okay
But I'm not okay right now
No, I'm not okay right now

I'll be okay, but I'm not okay right now
I'll be okay, but I'm not okay right now
I'm knocked down and I'm still out
So if you see me on the ground it's okay
But I'm not okay right now
No, I'm not okay
I'll be okay

Same time, same place tomorrow
I'm going down in flames
I'll be okay
Same time, same place tomorrow
Pretend it's all okay
I'll be okay
Same time, same place tomorrow
I'm going down in flames
I'll be okay
Same time, same place tomorrow
Pretend it's all okay
