

I lost the map, I lost the plot
Can anybody hear me, can anybody hear me
I'm feeling stuck, down on my luck
Can anybody hear me, can anybody hear me

I don't think you understand
How I feel or how to react

Hold me, and never let me go
Show me, the light inside of your soul
Take me, and drown me in the sound of a new love, a new love

I didn't wanna let you down
I hope you can forgive, I hope you know I'm sorry
This place is loud I wanna leave, I'll wait outside
Can you grab my keys, Cause I'm feeling kind of tired, I'm always kind of tired

You can cover your eyes and walk away
But I think you might belong in LA

Hold me, and never let me go
Show me, the light inside of your soul
Take me, and drown me in the sound of a new love, a new love

I heard your voice, you called my name
It doesn't always sound the same
I need you now, I need you now

Everyone's leaving, but I'm still here Show me love
I've made it clear
I need you now, I need you now
