

Snow In Montana

Michigander

Just checked the news
We'll be snowed in this afternoon
I'm stocking the fridge
Think we're only expecting an inch

Well, baby, it's cold outside
Drinking wassail instead of wine
And I'm missing you this year

And it breaks my heart
When I'm alone for the winter and I just wanna see ya
Can you move your car?
When there's snow in Montana and you're stuck in a blizzard
Does it break your heart
Like it breaks my heart?

Can't deck the halls
When I can barely afford the room
Where's Santa Claus?
Did I give up hope too soon?

It's a not so silent night
It ain't so calm and it sure ain't bright
But I don't mind the cold

And it breaks my heart
When I'm alone for the winter and I just wanna see ya
Can you move your car?
When there's snow in Montana and you're stuck in blizzard
Does it break your heart
Like it breaks my heart?

I went home, but it wasn't the same
I was with you, but had nothing to say
And it breaks my heart
Are you happy are you good with the change?
Are you stuck in your same old ways?
Does it break your heart
Like it breaks my Heart?
