

Move

Mick Jenkins

We gotta move
We got a mission still
We can't be sittin' still
We gotta move

I like the way that you move
I ain't out here makin' the rules
I just know you breakin' 'em by simply existin' in your magnificence, it's o verwhelmin' hate in the room
I cut through, Samurai Champloo
Hairbrained schemes been conditionin' fools
Seem like them niggas on fire, where they gettin' the fuel?
Red 40, Yellow 5 got my niggas sick and tired, baby, I need a real plate of food
Color me blue, smothered the greens
I gotta keep fuckin' with you
Stuck in between airplane wings, headed back home
Puffin' this tree, Carrie Mae Weems
Threads in a poem, ahead of the storm
We at the kitchen table with it
Weathered the tears, you got niggas behavin' different
Been treadin' water, I'm just now hittin' the pavement with it
We really in it these days, can't be lazy

We gotta move
We can't be sittin' still
We got a mission still
We don't be listenin'
We close but with differences it's distance in a way
We gotta move

You put a few wrinkles in time
That kind of wisdom doesn't come with old age
These niggas' prisms isn't bendin' the light for sun risin'
Precious, you want Aja Monet's?
Clear your sinus, you can drop the Flonase
We been silent as the B is in doubt
She told me I can't always be out the way, you got a voice, ain't it?
Once you notice the tendency is a choice, ain't it?
Voice noted just in case the memories avoid onus, huh
Don't wanna be the boy Jonah at all
Shit get fishy with me, know I'm simply at a koi pond
These days, conviction get me every time, I can't ignore wrongs
Can't sing along, these niggas really talkin' too much
On my Saul Williams, know you niggas walkin' the same
They chalkin' your frame out otherwise
Gotta know that we are not them other guys
Gotta wonder how we dominate, so undersized

We gotta move
We can't be sittin' still
We got a mission still
We don't be listenin'
We close but with differences it's distance in a way
We gotta move

I know, we blinded by the rain

I know, there's pictures out of frame
It's not a way, a way, a way to live
Gotta get away
