

RAW

Mick Jenkins

You so fucking raw
Don't even need you to be perfect
Go so go so hard I like a man who puts the work in
Moving with a purpose
Knowing what his worth is
Get it in he, get it in he earned it

Damn...
Never met a man like you
Taking care of business
Running up the digits
You be making major moves
Damn...
You so intellectual
Knowing your position
Clear on your intentions
I could see a lot with you

See how hard you work
You put in time and get it done
Make me wanna call your mama
Tell her thank you for her son
Got me telling all my home girls
That I might have found the one
How you hold it down it is comparable to none

You so fucking raw
Don't even need you to be perfect
Go so go so hard
I like a man who puts the work in
Moving with a purpose
Get it in he, get it in he earned it

This is love, sweet love
Love, sweet love
Love, sweet love
Love, sweet love

Put it on me
Ion play games ain't a thang that I do for another man to see
Staying in my bag it be feeling like it ain't no other place for me to be
Keep a oven mit
Holding heat
Right pitch and we in the major league
Getting reps in the batcage
Nuff cheese tryna step from the Rat race
Fuck wit me got direction no Mapquest
Fuck wit me slight corrections I need that Feed back weed rolled
We back at a level we could relax at
I could see baby thinking remax homes
Started from the bottom we won't be back there
Ain't no need to coddle none these backbones cause we can't fold
I ain't never seen a crease in a bankroll
We was cuddled had to go she said you can't go
So I ain't go

You so fucking raw
Go so go so hard

Love, sweet love
Love, sweet love
Love, sweet love

Never met nobody like you
Never had somebody do my body like you
You give me something I'm not use to
You so fucking raw
Send chills up my spine
Pulling me close
Holding you tight
Oh, you so fucking raw
