If you don't know
Then you know now
If you don't show
Then how you gonna get down
If you don't know
Then you know now
If you don't show
Then how you gonna get down

Seen at the bus stop
Lickin' on a lollipop
Payin' no mind
To the time on her watch
So I roll down the window
Spit game at this hoe
She reached in her bag
And out came the .44

I was laughin' and rollin'
This bitch must be smokin'
You know who I am? I'm the man
And you know this
So girl won't you listen
To my proposition
If you don't get in
You won't know what you're missin'

How you gonna get down if you never show up
How you gonna get down if you scared to throw up
How you gonna get down if you never show up
How you gonna get down if you scared to throw up

If you don't know
Then you know now
If you don't show
Then how you gonna get down

If you don't know
Then you know now
If you don't show
Then how you gonna get down

She's seen me on the airplane
Comin' down off cocaine
I couldn't care less
'Bout the mess on my track
So she turned on the light
"Not to be impolite
But you're starin' at my tits
And your hand's on my thigh"

She was fussin' and fightin'
So kind of excitin'
Seen snakes in her hair
Like the Clash of the Titans
I said girl don't fight it
I'm high as the pilot

And how you gon' knock it
If you've never tried it

How you gonna get down if you never show up
How you gonna get down if you scared to throw up
How you gonna get down if you never show up
How you gonna get down if you scared to throw up

If you don't know
Then you know now
If you don't show
Then how you gonna get down
If you don't know
Then you know now
If you don't show
Then how you gonna get down

If you don't know
Then you know now
If you don't show
Then how you gonna get down
If you don't know
Then you know now
If you don't show
Then how you gonna get down
