

Red Light District

Mickey Avalon

She got legs for miles and a devilish smile
A twinkle in her eye and impeccable style
She knows her worth and there ain't nothing free
Working these suckers for a salary
Walk like a cheetah, she walks these streets
Like a ballerina in between the sheets
She's the main feature, real tight screecher
Up and down the track in her high heel sneakers
Love on the clock running up the meter
Knee high socks and a tight wife beater
Hard to get your rocks off in the two-seater
Cost a lot of lube but there ain't none sweeter
She kicks her feet up into the clouds
A speed demon with dreams to get out
Lead a trick to the top of the world but you'll never get a kiss out of this little girl

Better look quick (in the red light district)
Hookers and tricks (in the red light district)
Give it all to your pimp (in the red light district)
Red. Light. District
Pull up in the whip (in the red light district)
What you do for a tip? (in the red light district)
A girl gotta pay the rent (in the red light district)
Red. Light. District

Whether it's Amsterdam or the Sunset Strip, the L Express or the Internet It's the oldest profession in the 'biz 'cause dudes act stupid when it comes to their dicks
Sneak out the crib for a midnight fix
Gotta get away from the wife and the kids
And if you say you never pay for the sex
Guess you never took a bitch out to breakfast
Oh come on, you big big spenders, you ain't never bought a ring or a necklac e
We're all tricks in the game of the sexes and you'll be better off the quick er you accept this
Now let's get to the moral of the story
There comes a time when a man gets horny
And if you don't want to jerk your own dick
Take a trip to the red light district

Red. Light. District

Make that money (make it, make it)
Take that money (take it, take it)
You gon' make it honey (make it, make it)
Now, go and shake it honey (shake it, shake it)
Make that money (make it, make it)
Take that money (take it, take it)

You gon' make it honey (make it, make it)
Now, go and shake it honey (shake it, shake it)
