

How's My Ex Treating You

Mickey Gilley

How's my ex, my ex treating you
Has she had time, time to find someone new
Any day now will be her last, I know from the past
I was once, once there too, how's my ex treating you...

Like the sand she'll moves with the tide
Your two arms will never keep her satisfied
(You can't keep her satisfied.)
She'll use you just the way she used me too
But up to now how's my ex treating you?

Like the sand she moves with the tide
Your two arms will never keep her satisfied
(You can't keep her satisfied)
She'll use you just the way she used me too
But up to now how's my ex treating you?

But up to now how's my ex treating you?...
