

Deserve

Mickey Guyton

I don't know where to start
Guess I'm not used to this
Always thought I had to earn
Every word and every kiss
But with you, that ain't the way it is
I stood behind my fences
Self sabotage
Hard to love was my defense
You never had a fair shot
But you still give me all you got

You gave me wings and took the weight
Stuck in a dream, now I'm awake
Nothing was real before you babe
You made a way out of no way

Oh, now I think I understand
What's it's like to know a real man
The kinda man who puts me first
Like I deserve
Oh, you stand right next to me
And love me for the worst in me
And wanna give me everything
That I deserve

It ain't about showin' off
Ain't about shiny things
Ain't about the visual
If I've learned anything
All that shit don't mean a thing
Boy when you lay me down
I can finally breathe in
Souls on fire and I
Don't know how to take it
But I could get used to this baby

Oh, now I think I understand
What's it's like to know a real man
The kinda man who puts me first
Like I deserve
Oh, you stand right next to me
And love me for the worst in me
And wanna give me everything
That I deserve
I deserve, I deserve, I deserve

You gave me wings and took the weight
Stuck in a dream, now I'm awake

Oh, now I think I understand
What it's like to know a real man
The kinda man who puts me first
Like I deserve
Oh, you stand right next to me
And love me for the worst in me
And wanna give me everything, everything
That I deserve, I deserve

Don't know you do it, baby
