

Busy

Microwave

Another awkward silence is starting up
God, I hope you'll leave here soon
Another stupid question just to say it cause
I hate silence as much as you do
Another one-word answer just to answer
You might as well have just not answered

I'll find new ends to replace the loose ones
Cause cutting ties is easier than learning knots
To tie them up and
Fix all of the stupid shit I never should have said
'Cause I know I can't keep calling just to clear my head
It's pathetic, forget it I'm fine

I got a brand new spot for me to leave my clothes at Where I can be with my thoughts and otherwise alone at
Because it all means nothing, all of the words we speak
You're really not as busy as you pretend to be

I'll find new ends to replace the loose ones
Cause cutting ties is easier than learning knots
To tie them up and
Fix all of the stupid shit I never should have said
'Cause I know I can't keep calling just to clear my head
It's pathetic, forget it I'm fine

Forget it I'm fine
