

Fault

Middle Class Rut

You're walking around feeling nothing about nothing
Your head in the ground waiting for someone to give you something
Your greatest excuse is your best lie
I tried but we don't have that in common
So lead the way
Complicate
Your own life is yours to take
But that life that you gave you gave away

You made a choice
Now it's your fault
You made a choice
Now it's your fault

The life that you had
I think it went bad it's dead it expired
But keep holding tight
Pretend that you fight but you're already tired
Your greatest accomplishment is yea
Like me you admit that you fucked up
So lead the way complicate
Your own life is yours to take
But that life that you have you just gave away

You made a choice
Now it's your fault
You made a choice
Now it's your fault

I won't ever ask you for nothing
No, it ain't that way at all
I won't ever need you for nothing
No, it ain't that way at all

And I cannot force it
What you cannot see
And I cannot force it
What you cannot see

Cause you made a choice
Now it's your fault
You made a choice
Now it's your...
It's your own fault
It's your own fault
