

Some People Stay In Our Hearts Forever

Middle Kids

Time heals old life deals in a roundabout way
Heart strings secretly cling onto your name
We weren't healthy, but weren't aware
Friends tried to tell me, but I just didn't care

You lifted me up, I let you down
Over and over
I wanted to love you, but I didn't know how
I'm so sorry
I'm so sorry

I sit and look at the pictures we took that day
Underneath the old oak tree drinking eight-dollar rosé
We weren't healthy, but weren't aware
Drugs kinda helped me, but I was barely there

You lifted me up, I let you down
Over and over
I wanted to love you, but I didn't know how
I'm so sorry
I'm so sorry

You lifted me up, I let you down
Over and over
I wanted to love you, but I didn't know how
I'm so sorry
I'm so sorry
I'm so sorry
I'm so sorry
