

Gone

Midlake

Was it good within walls
Underneath the lies
The more the barrier
Began to bury the truth of it all
In the roots of it all

But I still wonder
Why we even try
For years now
What would bind us
Is gone, it's gone

Make a call
In lays a fight or flight day
The scene replays this stage even more
Even more than before

So I still wonder
Why we even try
For years now
What would bind us
Is gone, it's gone

Release me from this burden
I don't want to hurt again, again
Peace may soon be coming
Out of one who walks away

We'll go round and round
All the more
More than enough
But it's never what
Each one got in it for

Is it good as it should
Underneath the ties
The more the merrier
Begins to marry the truth of it all
In the roots will it fall

Now I still wonder
Why we even try
For years now
What would bind us
Is gone, it's gone

So I still wonder
Why we even try
For years now
What would bind us
Is gone, it's gone

But I still wonder
Why we even try
For years now
What would bind us
Is gone, it's gone
