

Adios Cowboy

Midland

She was acting distant
A little bit cold when we talked on the phone
So I drove all night, but that West Texas sunrise lead me home
I stepped into the kitchen
That's when I saw the note she wrote, that said

"Adios Cowboy, hope you take care of yourself"
She left her ring by her wine glass
And not much of anything else

No, we're just a come back end game
No, "I'll call you, when I get to my friend's"
No, make it all up 'til you kiss
That's as goodbye, as it gets

She said, "Adios, Cowboy"

Guess you could say, I made a few mistakes
Hell, more than a little
'Cause a woman like you, could use more than some part-time in my head
That's what you left me with

"Adios Cowboy, hope you take care of yourself"
She left her ring by the wine glass
And not much of anything else

No, we're just a come back end game
No, "I'll call you, when I get to my friend's"
No, make it all up 'til you kiss
That's as goodbye, as it gets

Oh, whoa
She said, "Adios Cowboy"
Whoa-oh

Used to mean something so different
When I'd hit the road, she'd say

"Adios Cowboy" and "Hope you take care of yourself"
And not much of anything else

No, we're just a come back end game
No, "I'll call you, when I get to my friend's"
No, make it all up 'til you kiss
That's as goodbye, as it gets
