

And Then Some

Midland

Finally shaved my face again, and I finally opened up the window shades
And I was able to get up without whiskey in my coffee cup, today
They all say that it's way overdue
Finally feel like I'm getting over you

And then somebody says your name
And I'm right back where you left me
Then some song comes on the radio
I keep driving while you wreck me
Then some girl from Tupelo buys my drink
And my heart starts to think that I don't miss you
But I still miss you
And then some

Cut a couple inches off my hair, and I
Even asked the girl downstairs for drinks
Went out with friends and tore it up then I
Didn't even wonder what you'd think
I'm finally feelin' like myself again
I put that memory on the shelf again

Then some waitress has your eyes
And I'm standin' in your driveway
Then some star falls from the sky
And I'm back on Jackson Highway
Then some friend of a friend says you're doing well
And I don't know if they can tell I miss you
But I still miss you
And then some

They all say that it's way overdue
I finally feel like I'm getting over you

Then somebody says your name
And I'm right back where you left me
Then some song comes on the radio
I keep driving while you wreck me
Then some girl from Tupelo buys my drink
My heart starts to think that I don't miss you
But I still miss you
And then some

And then some
