

Whiskey

Midland

Here comes another mornin'
Just like the other wasn't was
I been doin' some rearrangin'
Oh Lord, only just because
My former situation
Just ran into a brick wall
The only God I know
Is whiskey and this fall

That night when I first saw her
Aw man I saw the light
Didn't have that feelin'
That followed me around
For most of my lives
I wanted to take my bags down
And unpack for awhile
But the only God I know
Is whiskey and these miles

Ah just me and my own now
All's good that way
'Cause people never listen
To what they do or what they say
So I'm off on my own now
Kinda like I always was
'Cause the only God I need
Is whiskey and this buzz

So I don't know where I'm goin' now
I don't like to think too much
It's better when it just happens
Oh Lord organic and such
I don't like when my voices
Gather up like storm clouds
'Cause the only God I want
Is whiskey and these crowds

Ah just me and my own now
Aw it's better that way
'Cause people never listen
To what they do or what they say
So I'm off on the road now
Just like I always was
'Cause the only God I want
Is whiskey and this buzz
The only God I need
Is whiskey and this buzz