Dancing With the Midnight Sun

Midnattsol

You have to climb the top go on, don't give up it never seems to end

It's controlling me this ain't what I want to be save me from this mess

Du ser hu som danse i skogen me lette skritt me lokkane øyne hu strekke ud hånnå men du når an ikje

Du ser hu hu strekke ud hånnå men du når an ikje
å dansa i midnattsol de e min drøm

The norwegian part in this song tells of a girl dancing in the woods. She gives you her hand, but you can't reach it.
