

Mrs. Donald

Midnight Choir

Hey Mrs. Donald
I'm turning to you
I can't make it by myself
I need you and no one else
My ship is going down
I praise the day that took your love away
And here I stay
Hey Mr. Captain
Tell me if I'm wrong
You missed me all along from Rome to Babylon
You know that it's so true
It's there in every song
You missed me all along from Rome to Babylon

And he goes: come with me
And she says: stay with me
Let me be your lover
A stranger takes a stand

Hey Mr. Preacher
Pistol in your hand
I've seen the rain a lot
But sometimes it ain't enough
A rumble in the soul
You sent that child astray and now you miss him every day
And there it stands

And he goes: come with me, stay with me
Let me the others, stranger takes a stand
Go with me, stay with me
Let me the others, stranger takes a stand
