

Poisoned Veins

Midnight Choir

Just a matter of time fore my blood boils over
Fore my poisoned veins crack my heart open wide
Just a matter of time till insanity possessed
Every thought of mine, every move I make
It's just a matter of time for these terrifying nightmares
Pounding in the night, tear my soul apart
It's just a matter of time till jealousy comes sniffing
God knows what she'll find in the ruins of my world
In the ruins of my world
