

Crushed by Demons

Midnight

Your whole life waiting for your time in hell
With one slice one more will do you well
Black magic powers suck you in like a
Like a moth to flame
Sacrifice your soul to Satan
As it calls your name

It leaves you cold raped and freezing
No chance for escape and your
Crushed by demons

Force of beasts these spells can never be broken
Now deceased enter the realm of the unspoken
Devotion to the unholy
Unholy obsessions await
Possessed and given the power
To pass beyond the gate

It leaves you torn sliced and bleeding
No chance for escape now your
Crushed by demons

In the end visions of black crucifix
Angels sent then died of chants 666
Disgusting creatures survive
Shining in this moonlit night
How many more battles remain
'Til we conquer with might

It leaves you torn sliced and bleeding
No chance for escape now your
Crushed by demons

No more waiting for hell
No longer under its spell
Lay down your soul for no reason
Then you'll be crushed crushed by demons
