

Death Scream

Midnight

Blood drooling from your earhole
Rigor mortis has set
Abuse has taken it's toll
Life lived with no regret

No regrets from the past
No escape from the grave
Now accept your own fate
Before it's too late, too late

Death scream, let me hear
Death scream, from your mouth
Death scream, crying out

Wait for the reaper to call
Only ashes remain
Smash your face on the wall
Never feeling the pain
