

Lord in Chains

Midnight

The God above you think is held high Time to give up now it's all just a lie - just a lie No one to help in your time of need I'll rip your throat and watch you bleed - watch you bleed

We'll take your Lord in chains

The Violators are coming on strong They do no right all we do is wrong - so wrong We show no mercy to any of your kind Mutilate them all you're so blind - so blind

We'll take your Lord in Chains

Your Lord is weak now soon he's dead Now's the chance take this path I have led The armies of the dead march through mud Conquering the throne now stained in blood

The life you knew is all in the past The only way now it to live it fast - live it fast Sin at will kill with desire We'll fan the flames still growing higher - growing higher

We'll take your Lord in Chains Not to serve in Heaven!
