

Sense Less Event

Midnite

Woah...mmh

The time immortalise as a by word and a pain

A senseless event turn the city into heartache and blood stain.

.. Again

With diverse of human lost conscience to be contained

The apprehension of the politic behind closed doors when trust has been shattered away....away!!!

When it feels like all is a victim its because each one is a valuable to their ones you see it yeah....

So let us appraise our deeds and fuel our sorrow appropriately

Well let us remove any ideology without fairness its equity

It is required of public servants to bring order to society...

If lawlessness is the lawlessness officially

That come to prevent the people from chaotic anarchy...then its escalation toppling prevent with in the hierarchy...look u see

Let injustice be called injustice and let justice flow like a stream..like a stream x2

Let fairness flow like a stream

Oh yeah..

Hear the cry from our same living ones from the dangle of materiality

No life is without the breath of life

So the ear is,priceless you see

Oh...oh...

So Haile Selassie I teach I to regard it in Awe in eminent reference esteem...seen

From each day the house is open front door to face their different journey...

But wretched of sorrow longside of histoic resiliency

Come bust out of the scene, and it seems

Like it went wrong directionally

As more en more violent rhetoric

Is playin out in the street
