

Bluffing

midwxst

I ain't really one for love, but I might give it a shot
Never show what I've been going through, but it's been a lot, oh
I ain't one for conversations, don't like to talk, but But these memories are stuck in my thoughts and I cannot get you out
I need you, need you right now
I can't let you down
My sniper make no sound

My anxiety's on ten
I've been losing all my friends
I don't want this shit to end
Don't want this to be infestuous, but It's been really hard to think, it's really hard to open up
I didn't ever think I'd find the person that I'd fall in love with
And I don't understand, but (One, two)
I don't wanna play pretend now

We've been fighting and fussing
I'm tired of loving
Don't wan' hold a discussion
See through your lies, your bluffing
We've been fighting and fussing
I'm tired of loving
Don't wan' hold a discussion
See through your lies, your bluffing

I know that you're lying
Tired of trying
The tears that you're crying
Will not change what I'm deciding, yeah
This shit takes two
Tried to show you, but you ain't pick up the clues
You won't change, I know you
But I gotta see it through

'Cause I know where this'll go
And I know, and I know, I know
On a side note, where this'll go
And I know, and I know, I know

We've been fighting and fussing
I'm tired of loving
Don't wan' hold a discussion
See through your lies, your bluffing
We've been fighting and fussing
I'm tired of loving
Don't wan' hold a discussion
See through your lies, your bluffing
