

My mic on? Ight bet

I've been sitting with my thoughts
I've been fighting these temptations
Trying to fill a hole in my heart cus' it's vacant
Too tired of waiting, I'm losing my patience
I know I'm guilty, bring me to the station
We had a bond and you broke it
It's been real hard for me to try and focus
Don't know how I should approach this
We're not done with our chapter but you wanna close it
It may or have come to an end but just see through my lens
Just don't throw away all the time we spent
When we were together, you said forever
I've just been hoping that it gets better

But you, you broke me
But you don't like how I'm coping
I hide, don't show, all of my feelings, I'm hoping
Had secrets we held, but you went around and you told them
My emotions are scattered and broken
I can't form a message, I'm choking

(1, 2, 3, go)
I'm watching all my fantasies, and all my dreams
I'm watching them fading away in the distance
And I don't talk a lot
No I don't open up cus' I feel like no one will listen
Up late at night, I've been thinking
I don't know what I'm seeking
Numbing my emotions on the weekends
I've been sinking, slipping to the deep end
And you can say you wanna talk but I don't wanna talk at all
How we build our world together but you ripped it all apart?
Watched it crash, I watched it fall
Drove my car into the wall
Sick and tired of taking all the blame, I will not take the fall

But you, you broke me
But you don't like how I'm coping
I hide, don't show, all of my feelings, I'm hoping
Had secrets we held, but you went around and you told them
My emotions are scattered and broken
I can't form a message, I'm choking

I can't form a message, can't form a-
I can't form a message, can't form a-
I can't form a message, can't form a-
I can't form a-
I can't form a-
I can't form a message, no I cannot
I can't form a message, no I cannot
I can't form a message
Can't form a message, can't form a message
