

(Oh) I see you're stuck in intervention
I'm lost, star struck, I'm feelin'
She's starin' at my eyes, I can feel it (Yeah, yeah)
(Oh) Look what you're doin' to us
I don't even wanna have to switch it up
You sent me to the back, tellin' me to live it up

Or I could really give a fuck, oh (Oh)
I'm lost, I'm broken
It's hard to see the shit through my emotions
You turned into a face I won't notice
Really didn't know that you would show this

You was talkin' all this shit, but now you're up in my mentions
Don't wanna come around me 'cause you can't feel the tension
I don't care what you gon' say, I don't care 'bout your intentions
I don't even know but you don't get the message
Sayin' that we're friends when I know that you're an enemy
I'm not gon' reply to the sexts that you've been sendin' me
Know that's not the real you, well that's just you pretend to be
Feelings crawlin' out of my heart, like it's a centipede
Messin' with my head, I think I need to take a step back
I'd be dead if I didn't record all these tracks
On my damn phone, they follow my life
You don't wanna be in my shit 'cause my life is such a mess

I've been lookin' at the barrel of my gun for an hour
I'm just waitin' for the bullet to come out and devour
Watch my brains blow up like a match and gun powder
Watch the blood fall down on my seat like a shower
One shot and I know I wanna miss
You said you needed me, but that was just a fib
You left my side, but now you wanna be on my dick
One day I'ma put an end to this shit

(Oh) I see you're stuck in intervention
I'm lost, star struck, I'm feelin'
She's starin' at my eyes, I can feel it (Yeah, yeah)
(Oh) Look what you're doin' to us
I don't even wanna have to switch it up
You sent me to the back, tellin' me to live it up
