

hate how much

midwxst

Tell me, why should I want you?
I'm not myself when I'm around you
Know I hate your fans but they surround you
And I heard around town that you were bad news
Wish I didn't give you my all and get something so small
But it wasn't your fault
'Cause you didn't know your worth

Hate how much I like you (Hate that shit)
How much we fight, too (Hate that shit)
Can't say what I might do
'Cause it's hard to spite you
Hate how much I like you
Even though you're bad news
Can't say what I might do
I hate that
But I know I want to

I hate that shit
I hate that shit
I hate that shit
Know I hate that shit
Know I hate that shit

And I know that things went past her
And I know that I've been pissed at her
We broke up for like the fourth time
Because you said that I can't communicate
And you make me say

Hate how much I like you (Hate that shit)
Even though you're bad news
Can't say what I might do
Get off my
But I know I want to

I hate that shit
I hate that shit
I hate that shit
Know I hate that shit
Know I hate that shit
Yeah, I hate that shit

Hate how much I like you (Hate that shit)
How much we fight, too
Can't say what I might do
'Cause it's hard to spite you
Hate how much I like you
Even though you're bad news
Can't say what I might do
I hate that
