Lost and crazy
Time has changed me
But I don't think you cared at all

I wish you would get up out my phone
I wish when we talk that you would watch your tone
Lately I've been in my own zone
You can't hurt me with your words or with your stones

I don't really think you cared
Every time I need you I call you up and you ain't there
I been tryna find some clarity but ain't nothing in my life clear
Only time that I can open up is when I'm sitting up on this chair

Don't let me touch the ground
(Don't let me touch the ground)
I'll be sinking 'til I'm found
(I'll be sinking 'til I'm found)
But I'll never let you drown
(Never let you drown)
To be honest, I've lost myself
Yea

Lost and crazy
Time has changed me
But I don't think you cared
Driving, baby
Down to chase me
But I don't think you cared at all

Her eyes tell a whole story
Scared to lose me, she's worried
Tired of looking stupid
Wounded, I've been shot by cupid

So do we speak the same language
Or we do we need the same training
Do my emotions need taming
I'm tired of explaining

Don't let me touch the ground
(Don't let me touch the ground)
I'll be sinking 'til I'm found
(I'll be sinking 'til I'm found)
But I'll never let you drown
(Never let you drown)
To be honest, I've lost myself
Yea

Lost and crazy
Time has changed me
But I don't think you cared
Driving, baby
Down to chase me
But I don't think you cared at all

Her eyes tell a whole story

Scared to lose him she's worried
Tired of looking stupid
Wounded he's been shot by cupid
