Mistakes

midwxst

You don't get it, girl
You were my whole world
But you left a mark on me
And I can still feel your burns
Somehow, I still miss your touch
I'm glad we fell out of love
But you know that when times get rough
You just gotta get through that stuff

Learning from all my past mistakes
You swore that I would never change
Finally broke free out of your chains
'Cause you're the one that was hurting me
Now there's nothing that I can fix
Swore I wouldn't break my habits
I've been through a whole lotta shit
But you would never know

No, no, you won't notice how I've been really feeling
Can't even tell my closest friends that I am still healing
No, no, you won't notice how I've been really feeling
Can't even tell my closest friends that I am still healing

One thing after another, now you actin' out
And that was never in your character, I'm castin' doubt
And now you're runnin' 'round the city, yeah, all 'round town
Like everything is okay, but it's not now, and you know that
But you won't show that, it's giving scared, bitch, you hold back
How you really feel, but I guess that I'll never know that

Learning from all my past mistakes
You swore that I would never change
Finally broke free out of your chains
'Cause you're the one that was hurting me
Now there's nothing that I can fix
Swore I wouldn't break my habits
I've been through a whole lotta shit
But you would never know

Learning from all my past mistakes
You swore that I would never change
Finally broke free out of your chains
'Cause you're the one that was hurting me
Now there's nothing that I can fix
Swore I wouldn't break my habits
I've been through a whole lotta shit
But you would never know

(I learn from my past mistakes)
(I learn from my past mistakes)
(I learn from my past mistakes)
(I learn from my past mistakes)
(I learn from my past mistakes)
(I learn from my past mistakes)
(I learn from my past mistakes)
