

NO ENCORE

midwxst

We can't even seem to hold a conversation
After you were plotting my downfall, you were waitin'
I thought we were in love, I guess I'm mistaken (Uh, uh, uh) Am I just a toy, girl? Am I just a doll for?
You to manipulate and to always call for
I don't wanna do another fuckin' encore

'Cause lately, all the pressure's been gettin' to me, gettin' t o me
Are y'all really my friends or just frenemies, or frenemies?
I never thought you would be the enemy, the enemy
Comfy in my grave, let me rot in peace or R.I.P., yeah
When we fell in love, we were already on the brink
Tryna fix this ship that we both knew was gonna sink
But nowadays, I can't even bring myself to say your name
'Cause each time that I do, betrayal runs across my brain
Turn me to a target, take your shot
Execute me, girl, in public, that's what you want
Bleedin' out from your axe, look at what you've done-one, oh

(Toy, girl, doll for)
