

Wait for texts back, I been waiting around the clock
Don't wanna talk, you have left me in shock
I have locked my feelings away
On my mind everyday

I, I can try but I know
That I can't let you go
But I think we both know
That down any road
That you'll come back to me

Run, run, run, run, I want to run away
Feelings are shunned and my heart gets locked away
Too afraid, too afraid to face what's in front of me
Hate your face, but you're still on my mind everyday

I, I can try but I know
That I can't let you go
But I think we both know
That down any road
That you'll come back to me

Run, run, run, run, I want to run away
Feelings are shunned and my heart gets locked away
Too afraid, too afraid to face what's in front of me
Hate your face, but you're still on my mind everyday

I, I can try but I know
That I can't let you go
But I think we both know
That down any road
That you'll come back to me
I, I can try but I know
That I can't let you go
But I think we both know
That down any road
That you'll come back to me
